BOOKING MENACEMONROE.VERCEL.APP/#BOOKING

BALTIMORE, UNFILTERED.

Menace Monroe is Baltimore, unfiltered. Built in the city's streets and studios, he's turned raw stories into records that hit like the block they came from.

A rising voice out of the DMV with viral moments, sold-out local shows and a catalog that runs from Belair and Frankford freestyles to official videos with Lor Rachet and Dave0sBeatz. His 2026 run includes "Family Feud," "Not A Club Hit," "Oppenheimer," "Statement of Facts" and the unreleased "Organ Donor," with new records dropping monthly on Menace Monroe TV and every major streaming platform.

Beyond the music, Menace owns and operates Trap & Rob, an independent Baltimore streetwear company, and works with Bully Management on brand partnerships, appearances and bookings.
